THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 1772.

AS my preſent State of Health will not admit of my continuing the PRINTING BUSINESS any longer, and I propoſe to decline it on the 1ſt Day of May next, in Favour of Meſſrs. THOMAS POWELL, EDWARD HUGHES, & Co. with whoſe Abilities and Inclination (to conduct and continue the Publication of this GAZETTE to general Satisfaction, and to do and diſpatch all other Work in every Branch of the Buſineſs) I am perfectly acquainted: So I take this Opportunity to give early Notice thereof; to return my moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks for the generous Support and Encouragement that has been afforded me during the Courſe of Thirty-three Years; and to ſolicit a Continuance of the Public Favour to the ſaid Meſſrs. POWELL, HUGHES, & Co. who I have not the leaſt Doubt will uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to merit it, and are well provided with Materials and Hands——will have the Advantage of an extenſive and well eſtabliſhed Correſpondence——be very punctual in their Publications——regular and exact in inſerting the Prices Current——continue my Marine Liſt——and be particularly careful in circulating the Papers.

If the Whole of my paſt public Conduct has not met with general Approbation, it has been my Misfortune, not the Fault of my Heart: I can truly ſay, that the Public Good has ever been the chief Object of my Views——my private Intereſt has often been ſacrificed to it——and I ſtill do, and ever ſhall, love this County enough, to ſacrifice more. If any of my Friends are kind enough to think I have not here advanced too much, and that I am ſtill entitled to ſome Share of Public Favour, may I flatter myſelf, that they will now give a Proof of it, by promoting the Intereſt of my Succeſſors?
